Day 21 — Build a RAG Assistant

COMPANY HR POLICY

Knowledge Base

Version 1.0 | Last updated: 19 August 2026

This document is the single source of truth for the HR Policy Assistant. Every answer the assistant gives must be traceable to a section below.

1. Leave Policy

Source: Section 1 — Leave Policy

- 12 Casual Leaves (CL) per calendar year, credited at 1 per month.
- 10 Sick Leaves (SL) per calendar year. A medical certificate is required for sick leave exceeding 2 consecutive days.
- 14 Annual/Earned Leaves (EL) per calendar year, accrued after completion of 6 months of service.
- Unused Casual Leave does not carry forward to the next year. Unused Annual Leave can carry forward up to a maximum of 10 days.
- Leave requests must be submitted through the HR portal at least 3 working days in advance, except for emergency sick leave.
- Maternity leave: 12 weeks paid, as per company policy and applicable labor law.
- Paternity leave: 5 working days paid.

2. Working Hours

Source: Section 2 — Working Hours

- Standard working hours are 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM, Monday to Friday (8 working hours + 1 hour lunch break).
- The company operates on a flexible timing window: employees may start between 8:30 AM and 10:00 AM, provided they complete 8 working hours.
- Saturdays and Sundays are off, except for teams on a declared rotational shift schedule.
- Any work beyond 8 hours on a given day may be claimed as overtime only with prior manager approval.

3. Attendance Policy

Source: Section 3 — Attendance Policy

- Attendance is marked via the biometric system or the HR mobile app at entry and exit.
- A grace period of 15 minutes is allowed for late arrival; beyond that, it is marked as a “late in.”
- 3 late-ins in a calendar month are equivalent to 0.5 day of Casual Leave deduction.
- Employees absent without prior approval or notification for 3 consecutive days are subject to disciplinary action and may be treated as voluntary resignation (job abandonment clause).
- Remote work / Work-From-Home requires prior manager approval and must be logged in the attendance system.

4. Internship Guidelines

Source: Section 4 — Internship Guidelines

- Internship duration is 3 months, extendable up to 6 months based on performance and business need.
- Interns receive a monthly stipend as specified in their individual offer letter; exact stipend amounts are not published company-wide.
- Interns are entitled to 2 casual leaves per month; unused leaves are not carried forward.
- A Certificate of Completion is issued only if the intern completes at least 80% attendance and a final evaluation with the reporting manager.
- Interns with an overall performance rating of “Exceeds Expectations” may be considered for a Pre-Placement Offer (PPO) at the company's discretion.
- Interns must sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA) before onboarding.

5. Code of Conduct

Source: Section 5 — Code of Conduct

- Employees must maintain business casual dress code on regular days; formal attire is required on client-facing days.
- Zero tolerance for harassment, discrimination, or bullying of any kind. All complaints must be reported to HR or through the anonymous ethics hotline and will be investigated within 10 working days.
- Confidential company data, client information, and source code must not be shared outside the organization under any circumstance, including after separation from the company.
- Conflicts of interest (e.g., outside employment, related-party business dealings) must be disclosed to HR.
- Violation of the Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action ranging from a verbal warning to termination, depending on severity.

Notes for the RAG System

- Each section above is a natural chunking boundary — use section headings as chunk separators when splitting for embeddings.
- The “Source” line under each heading is what the assistant should cite back to the user.
- Anything not covered above (e.g., exact salary figures, individual stipend amounts, specific team shift rosters) is genuinely not available in this knowledge base and the assistant must say so rather than guessing.
